Strike Leaders Are Arrested In Argentina

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—About 200 strike leaders were arrested yesterday in Cordoba province after a 24-hour walkout was called to protest living costs.

The strikers also demanded that the provisional government of President Pedro Aramburu scrap decrees freezing salaries at the 1956 level and setting up rules for strikes.

The Cordoba strike was nearly total, with the transport system and other services practically at a standstill. The arrests were made as strikers tried to stage a demonstration.

In Buenos Aires, an estimated 70 per cent of the city's dock workers began a 48-hour strike yesterday for higher wages. Soldiers were sent in to help unload ships.

The construction workers in Buenos Aires said their call for a 24-hour strike, also beginning yesterday, had been nearly 100 per cent effective.

Many other unions in the capital staged partial work stoppages in sympathy with striking communication workers. Telephone and telegraph service increased somewhat as more army and navy specialists were used.

Aramburu canceled an audience with leaders of 62 unions that had been scheduled for today. He acted after the unions threatened a 24-hour strike Friday to back up demands for wage boosts. The President's office said he was ready to accept suggestions, "but never threats."

Sees Ike's Action As the Only Course

NEOCHO (AP)—Sen. Stuart Symington said today it was his opinion President Eisenhower "had no other course" in his use of federal troops in the Little Rock integration situation.

"Mob resistance to a decision of the courts cannot be condoned," the senator said in a statement issued here as he was en route to Pineville to a fact finding hearing into farm and small business problems.

Grand Jury Charges He Lied in Probe

Secretary-Treasurer Of Local Indicted On 12 Perjury Counts

NEW YORK (AP)—James R. Hoffa, vice-president of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, was indicted today on five counts of perjury by a federal racketeers grand jury.

The indictment charged that the 44-year-old union leader, a candidate for the presidency of the Teamsters to succeed Dave Beck, lied to the grand jury, during its probe into alleged wiretapping of Teamster headquarters in Detroit.

The grand jury also indicted Benjamin Franklin Collins, secretary-treasurer of Local 290, which is headed by Hoffa. It accused him of 12 counts of perjury in connection with the same investigation.

Hoffa, campaigning in Miami to get the teamsters convention opening next Monday to vote him into Beck's spot, is a target of Senate probes as well.

The Senate Committee on improper activities in the labor or management field, has been hearing testimony in Washington on Hoffa's alleged misuse of union funds. The committee also challenged the legality of Hoffa's election as a delegate to the convention.

Each defendant is scheduled to plead to the charges Oct. 15, the same date on which Hoffa and others are due to stand trial in the wiretap conspiracy case.

Senators Get Testimony On Help to Union

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate investigators received testimony today that Benjamin Dranow, a Minneapolis department store owner, helped pay the legal fees in defense of a Teamsters Union official accused of dynamiting a home and automobile of other Minneapolis-St. Paul teamsters officials.

Jerome S. Alderman, assistant counsel to the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee, brought Dranow's name into an account of the career of Gerald Connelly, the accused dynamiter and a convicted extortionist now in prison.

Taking the witness stand, Alderman testified James R. Hoffa publicly read Connelly out of the union after the dynamiting incidents but that nevertheless "over $50,000" was spent from union treasuries in legal fees, "mostly for the defense of Connelly."

He said the fees were paid in three cases, two involving alleged extortion of money from employers and the third, two dynamiting.

Arthur Morgan, who said he led a rank and file rebellion against Connelly, also said that Connelly continued for a time to run the local from prison where he was sent on an extortion charge.

Details of a Teamsters Union loan to a Minneapolis department store and of Hoffa's own interest in a horse race betting partnership were other scheduled subjects of testimony as the special Senate committee continued its probe into activities of the Midwest Teamsters boss.

Not Ready To Handle Jail Riot

Guard Officer Tells Legislative Group Of Unpreparedness

JEFFERSON CITY (AP)—A prison guard lieutenant told a legislative investigating committee today the present guard force at the State Penitentiary is not organized to handle a riot.

"If we had another riot, it would be almost like 1954," said Lt. L. R. Mullinex. "We'd be running around like a lot of old women, not knowing what to do."

He said he had urged Warden E. V. Nash to let him organize a riot squad so that if trouble broke out the prison staff could handle it without having to call in the Highway Patrol as in 1954. But nothing has been done, he said.

Mullinex charged that witnesses who told the special House-Senate committee last week about bitterness among the employees toward Corrections Director James D. Carter "told a lot of lies in my opinion."

He said 80 per cent or more of the guard force is behind Carter. If anything is wrong at the prison, he said, it is the fault of the guards who run it—"because we aren't doing our jobs right."

Earlier J. O. Dotson, educational director for the Department of Corrections, said inmate morale at the penitentiary is "the best it's been since I've been out there."

He said there are always a few ready to make trouble at every opportunity but general morale is excellent.

In testimony yesterday the corrections director also said the charges against him were lies. The original criticisms were voiced at a closed hearing last week before the joint legislative committee investigating the penal system. Yesterday, under pressure from the public to open up the hearings, the committee allowed newsmen to hear Director James D. Carter's defense of his administration the past two years.

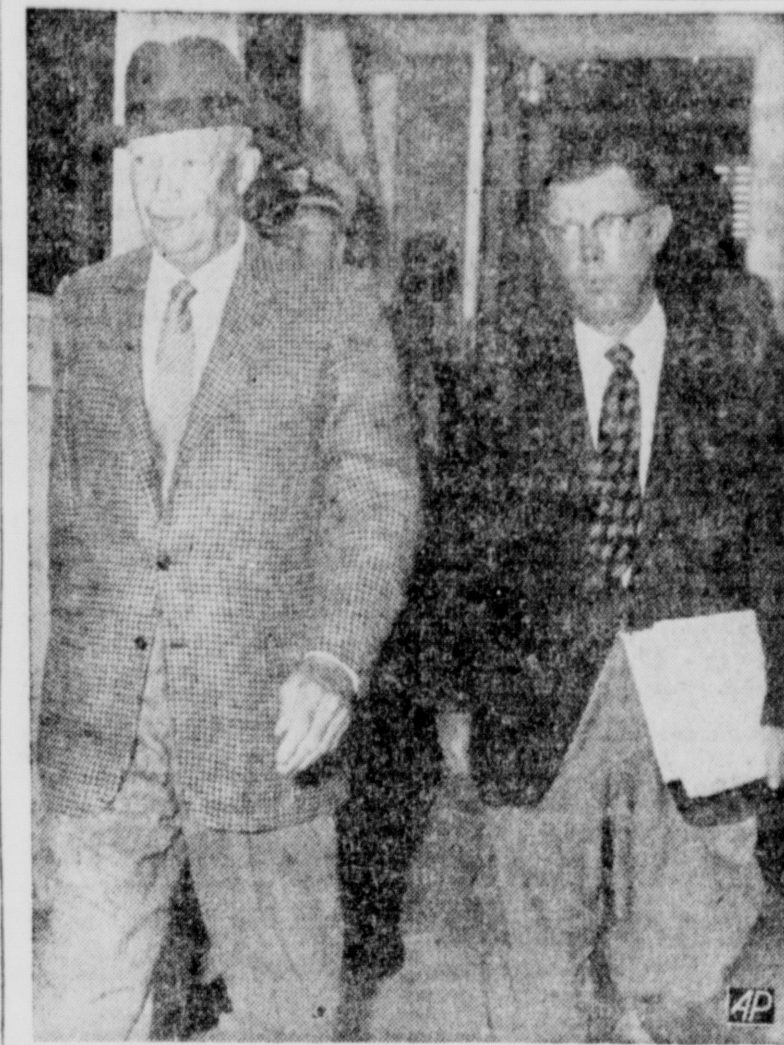

He said Warden E. V. Nash had done a "beautiful" job for three or four months after Carter appointed him.

"If the charges against me are that I am promoting progress," Carter said, "then I plead guilty. But I'm not guilty of interfering with the prison administration."

Carter said a small group—he called it a "gang"—of embittered old time employees at the prison had been causing the trouble. He said he was in favor of firing any disloyal workers.

Dissension among the officers, he said, could lead to trouble among the always uneasy prison population. He said he had heard that some guards and prisoners were making bets that he, Carter, would be fired.

Workers Given Names

Chamber Holds Membership Drive Kickoff Coffee Meet

The kickoff for the membership drive of the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday and Thursday was held at a doughnut and coffee session in the Ambassador Room of the Bothwell Hotel Wednesday morning, with Boyd Massey, chairman of the renewal membership committee, presiding.

"Each of you are interested in the community," said Massey to the workers about to go out on the drive, "or you wouldn't be here."

Give everyone a chance to become a member of the Chamber and assure him there is plenty of work for anyone who joins, Massey said. He pointed out that active members are the kind of members they want, people who take an interest in the community and its progress.

"If they tell you they are too busy to work," he said, "there is an answer that Jess Brown, director of the membership division told me when he asked me to head the renewal committee." Massey quoted Brown as saying, "It is the busy people we want, they are the ones who get the job done." Massey decided he was right, so he accepted the chairmanship and has found time to do the job.

Jack Faber, executive manager of the Chamber, told of the recent purchase of the new Industrial Park which he said is a great advantage in seeking industry. With 6,000 organizations competing for industry, it is the ones with a site available, ready with a railroad spur and similar attractions that get the industries. This site has another advantage, he said, a major highway. He told, too, of the new industry. The man operating this industry had been sent to southwest Missouri and had found nothing in that area, but it was through the contact of a man at National Engineering and Manufacturing Co. that he came to Sedalia to see what he could do here. It is important, said Faber, that everybody be on the lookout for industries. This industry is on lease purchase basis with the company leasing the building and later buying it.

Del Heckart, first vice-president, explained to the group that in Sedalia it is important to get small industries, because there is not a big enough labor market to take care of industries employing several thousand people. These large industries will not consider Sedalia for that reason; therefore, it is necessary to work for and secure as many smaller industries as possible.

Each worker was given a list of accomplishments of the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce in the past ten years. Among the things listed are the securing of several industries which recently include the Home Building Corp., National Engineering and Manufacturing Co., the United Shoe Machinery Co. and now the Precision Engineering Co. Many other things are also on the list.

The civic clubs have joined in the drive for new members and the following workers from the various clubs are: Kiwanis, Jack Crawford, Paul Hedderich; Philip McLaughlin and Robert Malone; Rotary, Charles Hofheins, Guy Peabody, Fred Crnic and George Routsong; Optimist, George Plybon, Gerald Cecil, Richard Esser and Marvin Boehme; Jaycees, J. E. Brown, H. W. Harris, Ed Rogers and Don Richardson, and the Business and Professional Women's Club, Marjorie Garansson, Shirley Wagner, Mildred Bowman and Lucille White. The Lions Club plans to work Thursday. Its representatives will be Russell Rhodes and George Young.

Those of the membership committee present were: Jess Brown, Boyd Massey, Harry Naugel, Jim Cooney, Richard Johnson, E. Glenn Lewis, Del Heckart, J. L. Van Wagner Jr., Jack Faber and Vivian Warren.

'True Face of Democracy'

European Newspapers Put Large Headlines on Story of Little Rock

LONDON (AP)—The Little Rock integration story was front-page news under big headlines in European newspapers today. Communist newspapers seized upon the story for barbed attacks on the United States.

A Moscow newspaper, Soviet Russia, said "Little Rock disclosed the true face of democracy in America."

The Communist youth paper, Kimsomol Pravda, gave more than two front-page columns to a report of what it called "terrible deeds of white racialists" and said these followed "so many beautiful words about freedom of the people in America." It added that American segregation problems were developing at a time when U. S. representatives in the United Nations were complaining about an alleged lack of civil liberties in East European countries.

One Man Is Clubbed, Another Stabbed in Arm in Fights

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Hard-eyed paratroopers, in battle dress and with bayonets at the ready, brought nine Negro students quietly into Central High School today in a new climax to the hate-filled struggle over integration in Little Rock.

A few white students left the school after the Negroes entered, but there was no sign of a mass exodus. A school official said 1250 students were in class today, making 750 absentees. It was 50 more than yesterday when it was known the Negroes would not appear.

At 11:20, about two hours after the Negro students entered, the school grounds suddenly filled with students and teachers.

Reporters said they were told it was a fire drill, but there was another report that police were investigating a report of a bomb scare.

Two Negro girls, Thelma Mothershed and Minnie Brown, came out with the white students.

Minnie Brown walked beside a blonde white student. They were talking together and laughing.

A reporter called from across the street: "Are you making any friends, Minnie?"

"Quite a few," the girl called back, flashing a smile.

Thelma Mothershed was with one of the teachers, talking.

The white students were laughing and joking with the paratroopers as they waited on the lawn.

In an arc two blocks wide around the high school, the paratroopers kept breaking up clusters of people, moving them back, herding them onto porches, and keeping the area clear.

They moved with swift, purposeful action. It was in these operations that the two men were injured. C. E. Blake, 46, a railroad employee, tried to grab a paratrooper's rifle, soldiers said. The trooper, quickly reversing it, struck Blake over the eye with the butt. He fell to the street but did not appear to be seriously injured.

Paul Downs of Springfield, Ark., got a bayonet cut in the arm apparently when he was too slow in obeying an order.

Jess Matthews, principal of the high school, reported "everything is calm inside the school and education is proceeding normally."

Outside, the scene was identical with those that developed in the last two wars of the United States. The high school was the command post.

A line of paratroopers, spaced about three yards apart, stood in the street fronting the school. Behind them, jeeps equipped with walkie-talkies, were stationed at strategic points all around the school.

Four soldiers stood just outside each of the first-floor doors, and others guarded the long, slanting steps leading up from two sides to the main entrance.

They were all in olive-green battle dress, carrying rifles with short combat bayonets.

City Fireman Dies Driving Fire Truck

Edward May Slumps
Over Steering Wheel
After Heart Attack

City Fireman Edward Lee May, 58, 705 South Engineer, driver of the East Sedalia fire truck suffered a heart attack and died at the steering wheel of the truck as it was enroute to the west Sedalia fire station about 12:20 a.m. Wednesday. May was rushed to Bothwell Hospital, where he was pronounced dead upon arrival.

The fire companies had received an alarm at 11:52 p.m. Tuesday to the lot just east of the Missouri Pacific spur to the State Fairgrounds and north of 16th Street, where trash from Mo. State Fair was burning. Fire Chief John G. Lueck instructed May to lay out a line of hose from the fire plug near the Pittsburgh-Corning glass plant to the west Sedalia truck to pump water to extinguish the fire.

The east Sedalia truck was then started back to the west Sedalia station to reload with hose. As the truck turned on Kentucky, the police radio was used and May looked toward J. D. Bunch, East Harvey, who was riding in the front seat with him, remarked "It's just a police call," and looked back down the street.

The truck was already half way between Third and the fire station when Vincent Sullivan, 313 East Saline, fireman riding the left side of the back step noticed May slump over the wheel. He called to Bunch to grab the wheel.

May apparently had just started to make the swing to the fire station drive, and the truck went on down the street, jumped the curb just before reaching the drive and knocked down an iron post with a fire lane sign on it.

Bunch grabbed the wheel and steered it back into the street and grabbed the emergency brake to apply it. He succeeded in bringing the truck to a stop at Second Street. A radio call was dispatched to the police station for them to call an ambulance and to call the west Sedalia truck for the respirator. May was rushed to the hospital in the Ewing ambulance.

The body was then taken to the Ewing Funeral Home.

Dr. C. G. Stauffacher, coroner, was notified and viewed the body.

Woman Continues Career As IBM Machine Operator

Mrs. Dorothy Riley

Dorothy Riley, secretary of the local Business and Professional Women's Club, is the wife of Kurman Riley and they have two sons, Kurman H. who is an Airman 1-c in the Air Force stationed at Abilene, Tex., and Michael, 11, who attends Striped College school. The family lives on Route 2.

It wasn't until Kurman H. was college age that Dorothy decided to get herself a job. Until then she had been busy as a wife and mother and was in PTA and all sorts of other club activities. But, since she had taken night courses, two terms at Smith-Cotton High School, she felt she was equipped to go into the business world.

So she got a job at Town and Country Shoe Co. which she planned to keep only as long as her son was in college. That was five years ago, the boy went to college and then quit to enter the Air Force, but Dorothy continued to work.

There is something about the IBM machine that fascinates her. Everything is in code. Each customer has a code and a card is filled out for him with his name, address, business and other things. Then there is processing of the invoice. There is the factory billing, the case cards with information date, the kind of order it is and along with the customer's code is the shoe code. It is important to know the season when the shoes are shipped, too, because the shoes are made according to seasons. To see that everything is correct there is a verifying machine.

Always there are records to be key punched and materials on order are kept in an order book. In addition to the stock there must be on the report on how it is to be shipped, by air freight, parcel post, express or now and then by truck.

Sometimes merchandise is returned and for this there must be a credit memo of the merchandise code, type of shoes, make and number.

Sees Reversal Of Other Cases On Smith Act

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Justice Department says two Smith Act convictions must be reversed in view of a recent Supreme Court ruling that defendants must have access to pertinent government files in certain cases.

In a memorandum yesterday to the Supreme Court the department said the two cases involved the same government records issue decided in the Jencks case.

The two men involved are Claude M. Lightfoot, a Chicago Negro who served as executive secretary of the Illinois Communist party, and Julius I. Scales, Communist leader in Tennessee and the Carolinas.

Lightfoot was sentenced to five years in prison and fined $5,000. Scales got a six-year sentence. The Supreme Court heard arguments on their appeals last November, but on June 3 it set re-arguments for Oct. 14.

It was also on June 3 that the court ordered a new trial for Clinton E. Jencks, a former labor official convicted of filing a false non-Communist affidavit. The court said Jencks should have been given access to FBI reports made by undercover agents who testified against him at his trial.

Congress last month passed a bill to let trial judges decide what parts of a government document, if any, should be shown a defendant.

The Justice Department said presumably any new trials for Scales and Lightfoot would be governed by provisions of the new act.

Louis Armstrong Will Reconsider Trip to Russia

DAVENPORT, Iowa (AP)—Louis (Satchmo) Armstrong says he may go to Russia after all.

After hearing President Eisenhower's televised explanation of why he sent troops to Arkansas, the famous Negro jazz trumpet player last night declared: "Things are looking better than they did before."

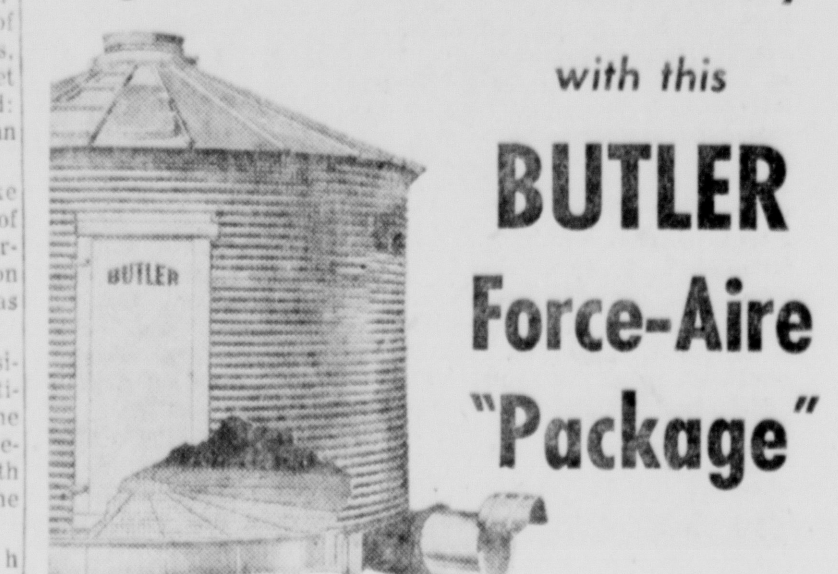

Armstrong had planned to make a government-sponsored tour of Russia but canceled it in bitterness when the school integration problem developed in Arkansas this month.

After the speech by the President, whom Armstrong had criticized previously, Satchmo said he wired the President: "If you decide to walk into the schools with the little colored kids, take me along daddy. God bless you."

Armstrong heard the speech

while here to play a concert. "If he said, 'I won't say that I won't go just wonderful the way he go. We may go to Russia on our explained it. It was all in good next trip. We have Germany, Italy, France in mind and Russia. Of his proposed trip to Russia isn't far away.'"

Rampage of Wrecks Breaks Area Record

Central Missouri's eight county Saline and Pettis in the State traffic record was shot to pieces over August when accidents went on a rampage, personal injuries increased and property damage soared to a new high. However, the number of deaths for the month matched those of 1956 with three apiece, while for the eight month period deaths increased from 29 in 1956 to 46 in 1957.

Pettis County saw a big increase in property damage when August of this year went to $23,968, as compared to $13,750 in August, 1956. One reason for the big loss was the large cattle trailer-tractor accident on North Highway 65 when the loss was well over $15,000. But the accident rate dropped from 30 in 1956 to 17 this year and personal injuries were down from 27 to 10.

Nationalists Pick Scholar As UN Voice

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Nationalist China has chosen a frail, 63-year-old philosopher, Dr. Hu Shih, to speak for it in the U.N. General Assembly's policy debate tomorrow.

The Chiang Kai-shek regime is letting him say what he pleases, hoping this will do some good among the 600 million Chinese living under communism.

Dr. Hu is known there as father of the Chinese renaissance, servant of his country and author of "A History of Chinese Philosophy" and "Essays on the Rights of Man."

He started a campaign about 40 years ago to get Chinese authors to write in popular rather than stilted classical language so the people could understand their books. He is a champion of liberal constitutional government.

The Communists gave some indication of his influence on the mainland when they put on a 1 campaign to "liquidate Hu Shih thought." They wrote articles and made speeches against him.

Dr. Hu, though he is an official member of the Chinese delegation to the Assembly, will decide for himself what to say tomorrow.

"He always writes his own speeches," explains K. W. Yu of the Chinese permanent delegation. "No one can make him say what he doesn't want to say."

"He is asked to speak because we know he enjoys such great popularity throughout China and he is respected by the people throughout China."

Hu's words can be carried to the mainland, Yu explains, by radio from Formosa and in pamphlets dropped by planes from there.

Dr. Hu, son of a government official, is a 1914 graduate of Cornell University and has a 1917 Ph. D. from Columbia. He has honorary degrees from Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Dartmouth, Oberlin, Colgate, Pennsylvania, Chicago, California and Southern California.

Visitors presented by James O. Miller were Jean Booth, Clinton; Lou Watmaugh, Booth Watmaugh, guests of Lou Watmaugh; Walter Williams, Oklahoma City, guest of Don Lamm; Bert Valkenburg, guest of Dr. L. S. Geiger, and Rotarian Arthur M. Garrett, Higginsville.

Jess Brown requested eight Rotarians to assist the Chamber of Commerce in the drive for membership, which were volunteered. It was announced that the district institute will be held in Camdenton on Oct. 18th.

Mrs. Edith Rissler Speaks At Optimist Club Meeting

Mrs. Edith Rissler told members of Optimist Club Tuesday noon at the meeting at Bothwell Hotel she felt that had she been given only five years of her life to live, she would choose the time spent on an Indian reservation.

She hadn't wanted to go, she said, but that seemed to be her late husband's great ambition. They had two little girls and she felt that was no place for them, so she prayed they would never go. When he was called to Kansas City to take his examination, she hoped he wouldn't pass but she knew he would.

The first place they went was to a reservation in Wisconsin, and when they left here in mid-September it was terribly hot, but when they arrived at the reservation it was snowing and it snowed until the middle of May.

The house they lived in was newly remodeled and a very nice home on the lake. None of the people were pure blooded Indians. The reservations, she said, are always on land nobody else wants, and here it frosted every month of the year. These people made their living by fishing and hunting deer and as guides for tourists. They are not supported by the government. They would build their houses but had no taxes to pay. The school was beautiful and equipped by the government, she said, but they couldn't get them interested in going to school.

As long as they are 1-16 Indian, they are considered Indians and these had lost all Indian culture, were poorly fed, housed and clothed. They had lost the Indian laws and had not taken up the white rules.

Later, Mrs. Rissler said, they were transferred to New Mexico and the situation was different. These were full-blooded Indians. The schools were not as good and the buildings and homes not so good. They didn't have electricity or gas, they had coal for heating, gasoline lanterns for light and bottled gas. But they did have water and sewerage. They could have had electricity but they felt if they didn't the children would stay in so they could teach them Indian customs.

They resented any white man's intrusion, Mrs. Rissler said. They didn't want you to learn their language, to know when their people died or were buried.

Mrs. Rissler said she had a lot of good friends among the Indians. They attended many of the dances, and she had eaten in their homes, sometimes on the floor, sometimes at a table. Some homes had a table, another might have some chairs, another a bed and dresser.

The black dirt floors, the speaker said, were like black marble and were always shining. They told her it was dried blood and soot that kept them like that. It was hard to teach the children because at first they didn't want to learn English and that made them start with a handicap.

The government was good, with a governor and a council. Dick Morgan, program chairman, introduced the speaker.

Claude L. Boul, president, conducted the meeting and invocation was by Bob Lindstrom. Charles Hanna led the singing with Miss Lillian Fox as accompanist. Tom McVey of Kansas City, 4th Zone lieutenant governor, brought greetings from the district governor, Harold Yeager, and stated that the Sedalia Optimist Club has one of the brightest records of any Optimist club of comparable size.

With him was Lysle Kindig, also a member of the Southwest Kansas City, Mo., club.

Two new members were taken into the club, Archie P. Landes and Thomas E. Delph.

Ike Explains His Decision To Use Force

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower says he ordered federal troops into Little Rock, Ark., because "mob rule cannot be allowed to override the decisions of the court."

In a hastily scheduled radio-TV address to the nation, he appealed to the American people last night to unite in understanding that he had no choice but to dispatch the troops.

"Unless the President did so," he declared, "anarchy would result."

And he emphasized that the troops are there "solely for the purpose of preventing interference with the orders of the court" which directed the admission of nine Negroes to Little Rock's Central High School.

Eisenhower said he personally knows that "the overwhelming majority of the people in the South—including those of Arkansas and Little Rock—are of good will, united in their efforts to preserve and respect the law even when they disagree with it."

But he said at another point that "certain misguided persons, many of them imported into Little Rock by agitators, have insisted upon defying the law and have sought to bring it into disrepute."

In other nations, he said, "our enemies are gloating over this incident" and seeking to undermine the nation's prestige and influence around the globe.

He told why he flew from his Newport, R.I., vacation headquarters to the White House — "the house of Lincoln, of Jackson and of Wilson"—to explain the action.

"I felt that . . . my words would more clearly convey both the sadness I feel in the action I was compelled today to take and the firmness with which I intend to pursue this course until the orders of the federal court at Little Rock can be executed without unlawful interference."

Today he scheduled a return flight to Newport.

As he spoke last night, 1,000 paratroopers flew to Little Rock. The 9,900-member Arkansas National Guard prepared for its first day under Eisenhower's orders federalizing it.

National Guard Plane Crashes; Killing Pilots

VAN NUYS, Calif. (AP)—An Air National Guard T33 jet plane crashed with a fiery roar into two dwellings, killing both pilots and nearly trapping a terrified housewife.

Mrs. Beatrice Stone, 42, said she was talking to her son on the telephone yesterday when she saw the plane coming. "It was already flaming—flames shooting out all around," she said.

"I sat stunned. It hit the roof. I ran to the back door but flames had spread from the roof and I was trapped."

"I started to jump from the dining room window, but a burning tree fell through it into the house."

"I screamed. Flames by this time were shooting down the stairway well. I made my way to the front door and finally escaped."

Jewish High Holydays

Beginning at sunset Wednesday five million American Jews and those of the faith throughout the world will begin their High Holyday observance and spiritual inventory.

This first day is called Rosh Hashana, New Year's Day according to the Hebrew lunar calendar, and the last of the ten days' observance is Yom Kippur, October 5, the Day of Atonement. During this period Jews look back upon the old year and examine their deeds and misdeeds. The High Holydays are marked with repentance, prayer and charity.

In homes and synagogues Jews will mark the beginning of the religious year, 5718, with prayers, hymns and meditations dealing with the need to make greater use throughout the year of the God-given power to improve the ethical caliber of human conduct.

On Rosh Hashana Day and Yom Kippur the shofar, or ram's horn, will be sounded in many synagogues as a call to conscience. The holidays are inaugurated in many homes with the dipping of fruit into honey, symbolic of the prayers for a "sweet" year, according to the Union of American Hebrew Congregations. Traditionalists observe Rosh Hashana for two days; Reform Jews, for one.

A timely observation is made in New York by Rabbi Maurice N. Eisendrath, president of the UAHC, who declares in a special High Holyday message that, "Jews have not lived up to their moral obligation unless they join in efforts to bring peace, freedom and equality to all the peoples of the world."

Considering the state of affairs in the world and the attitude of some minority groups in our own country today, no farther away than Arkansas, there is meaningful allusion to this in a typical High Holyday supplication from the Union Prayerbook:

"O Lord, hasten the day when all evil shall be destroyed and wickedness shall be no more. Quicken us to work with the righteous of all nations and creeds, to bring about Thy kingdom upon earth, so that hatred among men shall cease, that the walls of prejudice and pride, separating peoples, shall crumble and fall, and war be destroyed forever."

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

Operate With Amazing Precision

(Editor's Note: Drew Pearson is reporting on the U.S. 6th Fleet maneuvers in the Mediterranean.)

By DREW PEARSON

ABOARD USS FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT—At 5:30 this morning a call to battle stations sounded over the ship's loud speaker. I fumbled my way on deck in my pajamas. On the way I looked in the galley and asked the Filipino mess boy:

"What's the alarm for?"
"This is exercise in case of war."
"What are you doing?"
"Making coffee."

"Don't you have to go on deck and fight?"
"Later. Men need coffee in case of war too."
The Mediterranean was warm and balmy in the early grey dawn, not a ripple, much too pleasant for war. Shadowy figures passed me in the dark, going to battle stations. Close by they manned a 3-inch gun. Some of them looked groggy for lack of sleep, and I learned later that they had been working almost round the clock, as men on a warship must in peacetime battle maneuvers, as well as war.

The 5-inch guns below me began pointing up, down, fore and aft, as at an approaching enemy. On the flight deck a jet sky-raider warmed up, felt the jerk of the catapult and roared off the ship to watch for enemy planes. The force of the air, backwashed from the jet, almost knocked me over. The crew launching her, lay flat on deck or crawled to the catwalk below. One man who ducked beneath her to release the holding cable, rolled over and over to get out of the steam, then covered his face with his arms to escape the heat. This was routine. He wore a special headgear with goggles and soundproof ear muffs. Even at a distance, the heat was terrific.

Enemy Attacks
A British Canberra had been located forty miles from the U.S. 6th Fleet formation, near enough to drop an atomic bomb. Fortunately she was British—not Russian—from the NATO fleet off Malta. Approaching at 500 miles an hour, she had to be intercepted, and jet after jet zoomed off the Roosevelt's flight deck, an average of a minute apart, to search the grey Mediterranean for this simulated enemy.

Off the starboard side, a helicopter began to dance low over the water, like a sea-gull barely skimming the waves. Called an "angel," it stays in the air to rescue men when the carrier is launching planes. But there were no men to rescue and the copter did a hop-skip-and-jump over the water like a school girl at recess time.

A dove flew onto the gun turret just below me. We were a long way from either Greece or Italy and it must have flown many miles, it looked tired. The gunner's mate held out his hand—a friendly hand—but the dove flew off. In contrast to the dancing helicopter, it could hardly move.

Soon it came back, tried to light on a radio antenna, couldn't make it, finally fluttered onto a lower deck. No place for a dove to rest in the tense, suspicious Near East except a warship. That may be symbolic.

Things I Didn't Know Before About an Airplane Carrier—Toughest job on a carrier is parking planes. If you think parking your car downtown is tough, take a look at the problem of Lt. Com. A. E. Monahan, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, flight deck officer of the Roosevelt. He has 70 planes to juggle around, can't keep any of them on the runways, has to park them with split-second timing as homing jets land on the carrier minutes apart. . . . Monahan operates a chart nicknamed "the weejee board" which tells him where each plane is, whether it's fueled, being repaired, whether the wing tanks are to be fueled etc. . . . Operations on the flight deck move like clockwork. They have to. A mistake means a life. Every man has his job, and his jersey is colored to designate that job. A man handling gasoline, fire-extinguisher or ordnance wears a red jersey. A man wearing green handles the catapult and launching gears; blue are pushers to get planes off the deck; orange are plane haulers who drive little tractors like baggage men in a railroad station. Yellow is worn by flight directors, while brown by maintenance captains. K. E. Humphries, Riverton, Wyo., showed me how he made sure a banshee was in good shape before he turned her over to the pilot, had to sign a statement to that effect.

Things You May Not Knew About Carriers—Salt water is pumped into the bottom of gasoline tanks as the gas is pumped out. This is to prevent gas fumes and explosions in half empty tanks. The salt water remains in the bottom, doesn't mix with the gasoline. . . . The flight deck of the FDR is so broad it equals the width of the Queen Mary and Queen Elizabeth placed side-by-side. . . . The repair and maintenance deck of the FDR looks like the biggest garage in the world. . . . The crew of the FDR consumes 16,630 loaves of bread per day, 35,000 pounds of fruit and vegetables, 100,000 cups of coffee per day, almost 40 tea, 62,500 cups of milk per day, and 23,750 pounds of meat. . . . The man responsible for making this edible is chief cook Ralph Potito, formerly of Boston, now from St. Petersburg, Fla. He has 175 men under him, including bakers Paul Raddatz of Annapolis and Frank Thompson of Pensacola who bake better butterscotch pies than I've ever eaten ashore. . . . According to Airman Ed Brock, Lake Charles, La., sailors are reading as much history as fiction. When the FDR lands in Athens, Rome, Istanbul, there's a run on the ship's library for history books about those countries. . . . It takes three barbershops to cut the hair of the FDR's 3,000-man crew, a cobbler's shop to repair their shoes, four ship's stores, a tailor's shop, two soda fountains, one dry cleaning plant, to say nothing of four doctors. . . . The ship's power plant is capable of providing electricity to 4,000,000 homes.

Hopping Off and On Carriers—Watching 14 jet fighters and bombers land at night aboard the FDR holds a land-lubber like me in breathless suspense. I couldn't even understand how the pilots could see to hit the deck. According to Lt. Com. Frank Thilgen, Greensboro, Ala., and Lt. Ernest Delmanowski, LaSalle, Ill., however, it's fairly simple. They flew me on and off the carrier. As you approach the carrier, you get a sensation of swooping down on a very thin strip of floating steel. You get closer and closer, so fast you don't know what's happening. The flight deck comes up at you. It hits you—or rather you hit it. There's a screeching noise as the arresting wire, which catches a hook behind the plane, pulls you to a stop—and you're landed on a carrier. After you've done it once it seems as simple as the pilots say it is, but it isn't. It takes some of the most skilled pilots in our armed services to fly these carriers, and it's significant that Admiral C. H. "Dutch" Duerfeldt, commander of the 6th Fleet carrier squadron, still flies off and on the carriers he commands.

Think It Through

—By E. F. Hutton

Do you hanker to pay the electric bills of other folks, in addition to your own? If not, bills in Congress should interest you.

The Senate has practically forgiven the Tennessee Valley Authority from repaying Uncle Sam hundreds of millions of dollars which you and I and all us poor critters dug up in taxes.

Up to now, T.V.A. has been required to repay, over 40-year periods, the money it borrowed from Uncle for power projects.

We have given Uncle, in taxes, a total of 1,200,000,000 $'s, which Uncle has given to its favorite nephew, Mr. T.V.A.

The Senate bill lengthens T.V.A.'s time to pay to 120 years! Will you be around then?

The bill also permits T.V.A. to borrow still more millions from Uncle to further expand its operations. It is supposed to pay Uncle interest, but only after it has paid all its other bills.

Uncle comes last, as usual. But will T.V.A. set rates high enough to earn any interest after paying its other expenses? There is not even assurance.

A bill in the House would forgive T.V.A. all its debts now, not wait 120 years.

When you owe income taxes, neighbor, does Uncle forgive your debts, or wait 120 years?

Why shouldn't T.V.A.'s customers be required to pay enough for their electric juice so T.V.A. could pay Uncle, so Uncle could reduce your taxes?

T.V.A. doesn't even pay Uncle any taxes!

Address to the Nation

President Is Troubled, Reluctant Man

By ED CREAGH
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON, D.C.—He was not the stern old soldier. He was no towering figure of wrath.

Dwight D. Eisenhower was a troubled, reluctant man as he addressed the nation last night. He spoke at the outset of his sadness over the action he had just taken. He voiced deep confidence the whole unpleasantness would be over quickly.

But in the meantime: The President served notice that troops under federal authority will be stationed in Little Rock, Ark., until law and order have been restored—until "agitators" and their followers stop trying to keep a handful of Negro children from attending a white school.

Soberly, like a father chiding an errant son, Eisenhower addressed himself to the mob and the whole populace of Little Rock and Arkansas. He told them the eyes of the world were upon them. And he must have known that the world's eyes were on him too.

Eisenhower was on trial as never before in his presidency.

He is a man who strives always for harmony. He made his reputation in war and peace as one who smooths out difficulties. But on this issue he couldn't please everybody. Whatever his course, he would be damned if he did and damned if he didn't.

Suppose he let matters drift farther in Little Rock. He'd have been accused—as he already has been—of golfing while Rome burned. Said Sen. McNamara (D-Mich.), after Eisenhower called out the troops: "It's damn near time he took some positive action."

On the other hand, after Eisenhower took the most positive action in his power, the uproar from many elements in the South was tremendous. Sen. Olin Johnston (D-SC) came out for virtual war in his state if the same situation should occur there—as it very well may, Johnston, a former governor was all for calling out the National Guard (under state control, that is) and fighting it out.

What Southerners say Northerners don't understand—among other things—is this: "Federal," especially when used in connection with "troops," is all but a dirty word in most regions south of the Mason-Dixon Line.

Yankees may have forgotten Reconstruction days, but the Southern memory hasn't. For 10 bitter years most of the South was under Northern military rule. Untrained Negroes and Northern carpetbaggers ran what amounted to an occupied territory.

Shopper-Watcher Is Fun And An Inexpensive Hobby

If you want to have some fun next time you go shopping, make a private survey of the types of women shoppers you encounter on your expedition.

You may find many others—but here are a few types you are bound to spot.

Mrs. Just Looking. If a customer admits openly to the clerk that she is just looking, she may end up a purchaser. Mrs. Just Looking isn't so frank. She pretends she really wants to buy something, but she has such a quick fault to find with everything shown her that she gives herself away. Also, she seems mighty unconcerned about the price of what she looks at. That's because she has no intention of buying.

Mrs. Somebody. Shopping trips give her a beautiful chance to throw her weight around. She casually—or so she thinks—lets the saleswomen know that she wants only the best, that her closets are already bulging, that she is just back from a trip to some glamorous spot or just about to take one. She'll be more interested in the labels than in the clothes.

Mrs. Neighbor. She's the chatty type. The one who takes up a busy saleswoman's time talking about her children, her grandchildren, her diet or whatever concerns her at the moment. To her a salesperson is a captive audience and she chats along, relaxed and happy to have a listener.

Miss Teen-Age. If she is alone she may be a quick and expert shopper. But if Mom is along, she will probably have to try on everything Mom likes as well as everything she likes. And all too often there is a pitched battle before daughter gets to buy her own selection.

Mrs. I Can't Decide. She will have trouble if she is just buying a pair of plain black gloves. To help make up her mind, she'll ask questions, ask the salesperson's advice, ask the advice of any shopper who happens to be standing nearby, and then probably leave the store without having made up her mind. If she does make a purchase, chances are she'll return it next day.

You can spot all these types—and more, too—in just one day's shopping trip. Like bird-watching, shopper-watching is an inexpensive and amusing hobby.

Missouri Percentage Lower

But Off Farm Operator Trend Is On Increase

By Esther Van Wagoner Tufty
Of Our Washington Bureau
WASHINGTON — Part-time jobs in the city are tempting more and more farmers to increase their incomes, according to a report just issued by the Census Bureau. And many of the farmers are finding these jobs more profitable than work on the farm.

In Missouri, which had 201,660 farm operators in 1954, 88,078 had off farm jobs, a percentage which is lower than the national average.

Almost half the farm operators in the country worked at least a few days off the farm in 1954, which is the last year for which figures are available.

The report says: "Farm operators who work at other occupations simultaneously with some farming have increased substantially in terms of percentages."

"This is true in most areas of this country. This trend has been most pronounced in the last decade, but it has been in evidence since 1930, at least. . . ."

The Census Bureau believes the general pattern is that of a continuing migration of farm families out of agriculture into other occupations, and an increasing participation of commercial farmers in non-agricultural employment. . . . There is every indication that the trends toward greater participation of farm people in non-farm employment will continue.

In the whole country there are 4,783,000 farm operators, and in 1954 2,154,000 of them worked off the farm; 820,000 from 1 to 100 days, and 1,334,000 more than 100 days. The Census Bureau feels, however, that for those who worked more than 100 days off the farm, farming is likely to be a secondary occupation.

Cause of Nail Trouble Is Often Difficult to Find

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.
Mrs. J. C. writes that she has been having a great deal of trouble with splitting fingernails.

She adds that she has been taking calcium, gelatin, and wearing rubber gloves because of the possibility that soaps are partly responsible. She wonders particularly whether this difficulty is related to an operation she had some time ago for removal of the womb — hysterectomy.

It is possible, of course, that there is some relation to the operation but it seems unlikely. It is certain that trouble with the nails or other difficulties is quite common. While I cannot make any specific recommendations, the subject is certainly worth discussing.

The nails of the fingers and toes are subject to a number of difficulties from local disorders — injury, dietary deficiencies, general skin diseases. For example, most of us will get temporary ridging of the nails following a severe illness associated with fever. This, as a rule, is not permanent.

It is doubtless true that the nails are affected by disorders of the glands of internal secretion, poorly fitted shoes or gloves, dirt and neglect.

One of the most important diseases which affect the nails directly is an inflammation around the base — that is in the nail bed. This is the result of infection with germs and its common name is "whitlow."

A single nail may be involved or all of them. This results in ridging and sometimes the nail separates and falls off. The treatment, of course, is to attack the infection. In extremely severe cases the nail may have to be removed.

Ringworm can affect the nail and may be difficult to cure. Psoriasis is another skin disease which may cause nails to become pitted and deformed. White spots, or streaks often appear in the nails. This is most common in young people, and is on the fingers rather than the toes.

Irritation of the nails from polishes or lacquers is sometimes responsible for difficulty. In psoriasis, ringworm or eczema of the nails, treatment has to be aimed at the particular disease responsible.

When some general condition is at fault, such as a vitamin deficiency or wasting disease, local treatment is not likely to be effective. The distant cause must be identified and appropriate treatment undertaken.

Disturbances of the nails are common. The cause is often difficult to identify and cure is often tantalizingly slow.

The maintenance of general good health, avoidance of injury and good care of the nails are probably the most important precautionary measures.

Speculation Mounts On Air Force Firing Of Long Range Missile

MISSILE TEST CENTER, Cape Canaveral, Fla. — Speculation mounted today that the Air Force is poised to fire its Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile from here.

Technicians and engineers from the Convair Division of General Dynamics Corp. and the General Electric Co. have been arriving since Sunday.

Both companies are interested primarily in the huge missile which is designed to rocket 600 miles into the sky at a speed of 15,000 miles per hour.

As usual, officials at Patrick Air Force Base were tight-lipped but it is known that Deputy Defense Director Donald A. Quarles is still here. He arrived at the base last Wednesday on what Washington called a busman's holiday. He is expected to stay until the end of the week.

By Robert L. Dittenbacher, D.D.

Pine trees grow straight and tall in the forests. They reach up toward heaven for light and air. Although they may start to grow crooked, nature straightens out the final growth. The trees of the forest seem to brook no obstacles. A seed dropped in the crevice of a rock will grow in spite of its precarious location.

Men do not show such a natural tendency to grow straight toward heaven. Human beings have the freedom to choose the way that they will go. They follow whims, fads and fantasies. They shift their courses with changing interests. Yet there are some who do not seek momentary pleasures.

Some folk can withstand the temptations of the world. Many stand up against the hardships and the buffeting of man-made storms. They stand straight in the crowds of men because they are growing toward God.

'Santa Claus' Rescued From Pauper's Grave

CHICAGO —A police captain about his family. "They live out East," Moss learned Santa Claus died and his body was destined for potter's field.

He wasn't really Santa Claus to everybody. But William Moss, 65, was St. Nick for the last half dozen years to the kids around 79th and South Halsted streets, where he donned beard and bright red suit for the merchants' association.

Capt. William Hennessey of the busy South Side Gresham district said Moss was a friend to a lot of folks. He liked children and he had a hearty laugh.

Hennessey, Moss' landlady and a friend, Sam Kaplan, in whose restaurant Moss dined daily, never did learn any information about his family.

When Hennessey was told Moss had no money for burial he ordered the body taken to an undertaker — and then spread the word. Businessmen, policemen, the waitresses in Kaplan's restaurant dipped into their pockets. "We've got enough for a fine funeral," Hennessey said.

When it was learned Moss was Jewish, Rabbi Jacob S. Rich agreed to officiate at today's services.

"Sure he'll have flowers," said Hennessey, "and a motorcycle escort to the Beverly cemetery with some squad cars too."

"It isn't every day you lose Santa Claus."

He came upon the trio trying to open the safe, arrested them and turned them over to authorities.

If Hank Aaron Can Keep Bat Boomin', Yanks Face Disaster

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

If streak-hitter Hank Aaron can keep his bat boomin' it may be "Katie bar the door!" when the Milwaukee Braves open a week from today, won his 21st.

With the pennant decided, the rest of the NL clubs scrambled for the leftovers last night. Brooklyn's Dodgers, playing what probably was their last game in Ebbets Field, nailed no worse than a share of third with a 2-0 victory over Pittsburgh. Cincinnati clinched fourth and stayed in contention for a third-place tie by beating Chicago's Cubs 4-3 and 11-9 in a two-night pair.

Philadelphia's fifth-place Phillies defeated the New York Giants 3-0.

In the American League, the Chicago White Sox outlasted Kansas City's Athletics, the club that killed their flag bid Monday, 7-6. Ted Williams' 38th home run gave Boston a 2-1 edge over Washington in the only other game scheduled.

Second Place Race in Big 8 Will Be Hot

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

There will be no Orange Bowl trip in the offing for a second place finish in the Big Eight Conference this year, but there is every indication contention for runner-up honors will be as intense as in the past.

Oklahoma, which has claimed the title for the past nine years, is expected to find no stumbling blocks in conference play to prevent it from making the bowl trip this year.

Prior to this season, the Big Eight (former Big Seven) had an agreement with the Orange Bowl committee that prevented any team from returning two years in succession.

As a result, the Sooners made the trip in 1953 and again in 1955 while Nebraska got honors in 1954 and Colorado in 1956.

Under the new agreement the conference will send its champion regardless.

The three strong contenders for second place this season appear to be Missouri, Kansas and Colorado.

Kansas State is a possible dark horse contender and Nebraska could make itself known around the conference.

Iowa State is adapting to the single wing so is not considered a serious threat.

Oklahoma State is not eligible for an official league position in the standings until 1960. It was admitted to the conference during the summer.

The Tigers, Buffs and Jayhawks each opened the season on a tie game. Missouri played Vanderbilt 7-7; Colorado and Washington finished 6-6, and Kansas and Texas Christian ended with a 13-13 score.

Missouri's problem is a lack of backfield speed. Colorado is working with a strong backfield but lacks experience and depth in the line. Defense is again the worry at Kansas.

This weekend while the No. 1 ranked Sooners take a rest Missouri plays Arizona at Columbia. Kansas meets Oregon State at Lawrence, Colorado is at home for Utah, Iowa State is at Syracuse, Nebraska at West Point, Kansas State at Manhattan against Brigham Young and Oklahoma State goes to North Texas.

X-Rays Show Akins Has a Fracture

ST. LOUIS (AP)—X-rays disclose Virgil Akins of St. Louis, a contender for the middleweight title, broke a bone in his left hand in the second or third round of the bout he lost to veteran Gil Turner last week at Atlantic City.

"We knew Virgil had hurt his hand early in the fight," Manager Eddie Yawitz said last night. "But we did not know until after looking at x-rays that a bone had been broken. It made his left hand, which is his most effective weapon, virtually useless."

Yawitz said he hopes a return

It was Aaron's 44th homerun of the year, third in three days, and kept him in the major league lead while southpaw Warren Spahn, Milwaukee's probable choice for the World Series opener a week from today, won his 21st.

With the pennant decided, the rest of the NL clubs scrambled for the leftovers last night. Brooklyn's Dodgers, playing what probably was their last game in Ebbets Field, nailed no worse than a share of third with a 2-0 victory over Pittsburgh. Cincinnati clinched fourth and stayed in contention for a third-place tie by beating Chicago's Cubs 4-3 and 11-9 in a two-night pair.

Philadelphia's fifth-place Phillies defeated the New York Giants 3-0.

In the American League, the Chicago White Sox outlasted Kansas City's Athletics, the club that killed their flag bid Monday, 7-6. Ted Williams' 38th home run gave Boston a 2-1 edge over Washington in the only other game scheduled.

Aaron's big homer came in the first after a pair of singles and a walk off right-hander Sad Sam Jones, who didn't finish the frame.

Spahn cracked the Cards again with a five-hitter, giving up the run in the third when Stan Musial doubled and Del Ennis singled.

Rookie southpaw Danny McDevitt gained his second shutout with a five-single job on the Pirates. He struck out nine for a 7-4 record. Bennie Daniels, a right-hander making his first major league appearance, was the loser.

Bob Thurman was 4-for-7 and drove in four runs for the Redlegs in their sweep while Wally Post homered in both games. Thurman's single broke a 3-all tie in the first game fourth and his two-run homer triggered a clinching three-run nightcap fifth.

Curt Simmons won his 12th with a four-hitter for the Phils with Hank Sauer and Valmy Thomas splitting the Giants' singles. Bob Bowman's two-run single settled it against rookie Curt Barclay in the first.

Willie Mays, hoisted into the Giant leadoff spot in an effort to gain ground on Musial for the bat title, had three trips and lost a point 333. Musial, 1-for-2, stayed at 349.

Williams' homer came in the fourth for a 2-0 lead over Hal Griggs while Frank Sullivan won his 14th with a five-hitter.

Griggs stopped Williams' string of 16 trips without being retired when Ted grounded out in the first. Williams was 1-for-3, losing a point but still 19 points ahead of Yankee Mickey Mantle for the AL bat crown at 384 to 365.

Earl Battey was 3-for-4 and drove in two runs with a homer as lefty Don Rudolph won his first for the White Sox. Wally Burnette was the loser.

Discontinue Mixed Football Activities In Houston Stadium

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Negroes will not be allowed to play with whites at high school football games in Houston's public school stadium this year.

They were allowed to play last year, without incident.

Roy E. Dealy, assistant director of extramural activities for the Houston schools, said the new policy was adopted at the request of several principals who believe football should continue on a segregated basis until the schools integrate.

Two San Antonio football teams with a Negro player each appeared in the stadium last year. Dealy said there was "no comment, no scene or anything."

Chatter Allen, director of athletics at Corpus Christi, Tex., meantime announced its high school coaches agreed not to schedule opponents "unless they allow us to play all our boys."

Negroes play at the three Corpus Christi high schools but they have been left behind when their teams came to Houston.

Contract Signing Only Obstacle to Move Of Brooklyn Dodgers

BROOKLYN (AP)—Ebbets Field looked the same as always today. The admission price signs still were hanging. The flags of the eight National League teams still waited in the Flatbush breeze. Even the tarpaulin was spread across the infield.

There was one big difference, though. It was a ghost ball park. Barring an unforeseen miracle, the Brooklyn Dodgers never will play there again. Only the official signing of contracts stood between them and moving to Los Angeles next year.

To a man, Brooks were sad at the thought of leaving the little sandbox.

"It's an eerie feeling," said Duke Snider.

Said Manager Walt Alton: "When I came here, I heard that this was a tough town, that the fans could get on you. But they treated me good. I'm slow making friends but when I make them I hate to leave them."

Sooners Get Idle Weekend For Resting

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Oklahoma Sooners, whose decisive opening victory over Pittsburgh supported the preseason balloting that nominated them as the nation's No. 1 college football team of 1957, can't lose this week.

After reaching the heights to smash Pitt, regarded as the East's best, 26-0, Oklahoma has an idle Saturday before meeting its first Big Eight rival Iowa State Oct. 5.

Meanwhile, the sports writers and broadcasters, who picked Oklahoma first in the preseason Associated Press ranking poll, reiterated their belief by voting the Sooners the No. 1 rank in the first weekly poll after the start of the season.

The results of Saturday's games brought several changes in the preseason ranking order. Of 74 writers and broadcasters participating in this week's poll, 65 voted Oklahoma first; 4 put Michigan State on top; 2 voted for Duke and single first-place votes went to Navy, Minnesota and Iowa.

In the point scoring on the usual 10-9-8 etc. basis, it was Oklahoma 720, Texas A&M 460, Georgia Tech 374 and Michigan State 354. Completing this week's first 10 were Navy, Minnesota, Duke, Tennessee, Oregon State and Michigan.

EVANSTON, Ill. (AP)—The American sports public, which loves an underdog hero, might find a new one Saturday when halfback Bobby McKeiver leads Northwestern against Stanford in a nationally televised game.

McKeiver is an oddity in this day and age when college coaches are looking for 200-pound halfbacks with the speed of 160-pounders.

McKeiver is 5 feet 4 1/2 inches and has trouble reaching 160 pounds. But that doesn't bother the versatile star who last year was one of the big reasons Northwestern moved back into Big Ten football respectability.

McKeiver does everything. He is one of the finest defensive backs in the Big Ten despite his size. He is also Northwestern's No. 1 offensive threat.

Last season he led the team in rushing with 592 yards for a 5.2 average. He scored 28 points with 4 touchdowns, 11 extra points, and 1 field goal. He caught 14 passes for 171 yards and was the conference's top punter with a 29.6 average.

McKeiver didn't miss a game as Northwestern put together a 4-4-1 record.

Spahn Keeps Giving Cards Rough Time

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Even with the pennant in the bag, veteran Warren Spahn doesn't know what it means to let up against his favorite victims, the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Milwaukee lefthander won his 21st victory of the season and 47th of his major league career over St. Louis last night at Milwaukee with a five-hitter, 6-1.

Spahn has beaten the Red Birds more times than any other National League pitcher has beaten any other club.

The Braves clinched the title the previous night but showed no mercy as Henry Aaron clubbed the first grand slam home run of his major league career, routing Sad Sam Jones in the first inning.

Fred Hutchinson's men have yet to clinch second place—they are assured of no worse than a tie for second.

Stan Musial, keeping his league batting mark at .349, doubled in the third and scored on a single by Del Ennis for the only Cardinal run.

At Kansas City, the Chicago White Sox reacted to their elimination from the pennant race with the A's with a 16-hit bombardment for a 7-6 victory.

The White Sox got all their runs in the first four innings. Earl Battey contributed a home run.

Bob Cerv's two-run pinch homer in the ninth put the A's within one run against rookie lefthander Don Rudolph, who held them to one run in the previous six innings.

Air Academy Football Delay Is Expected

DENVER (AP)—Entry of the U.S. Air Force Academy into big time football may be delayed at least a year, Col. George Smiler, the academy's athletic director said today.

Col. Smiler said he would decide after watching the AFA Falcons in their games against Occidental and Detroit whether 1958 contests tentatively scheduled with Tulane, Stanford and Iowa should be cancelled.

"It has nothing to do with our 47-0 loss to UCLA last Friday," Col. Smiler said. "We just don't want to run before we can walk."

He said two football seasons were learned in the UCLA game last week — that a school needs the material to begin with and equal opportunity to prepare for its season.

"We only had eight days of single practice sessions with our complete squad in preparation for the UCLA game," the athletic director said. "In the future we may have to arrange for twice-a-day workouts like the big boys."

"We owe something to the sports fan, the schools we schedule to and to ourselves in this matter of scheduling teams."

Benjamin Brick is president of a lumber company here.

But Gus Zernial hit into a double play to end it.

Billy Martin also homered for Kansas City.

Durrelle Is Favored Over Willi Besmanoff In 10-Round Bout

DETROIT (AP)—German heavyweight Willi Besmanoff has the advantage in height and reach and a chance to upset Yvon Durrelle's title plans when the two meet tonight in a 10-rounder at Detroit's Olympia Stadium.

But Durrelle, a stocky French-Canadian who owns three fishing boats in Baie Ste. Anne, New Brunswick, is favored to whip Besmanoff in this over-the-weight match that will be nationally televised and broadcast (ABC, 8 p.m. CST).

Durrelle, a busy fighter who has had six victories and a draw with Tony Anthony in 1957, may be the next light heavyweight to challenge Archie Moore for the championship if he can record a decisive victory over Besmanoff.

Bride, Groom Celebrates 10th Birthday

NEW YORK (AP) — Pat Greene has one of the easiest—yet toughest—tasks on television. Every week she reads 500 or more letters, and picks the couples who later find themselves suddenly saying "I do" before the cameras of "Bride and Groom," one of the air's sturdiest staples, which is now celebrating its 10th year via NBC-TV each weekday afternoon.

The program recently launched its 2,400th couple on the sea of matrimony with the usual jackpot of household chattels worth about $2,500.

"That seems to be a main reason for wanting to get married on the air," says Mrs. Greene. "Couples feel it is a wonderful start in life free of the installment plan."

"Another reason they give is that they have relatives scattered all over and they can attend through television."

She scrupulously avoids any hint of off-beat romance and enforces such requirements as that neither partner ever has been divorced. The program proudly proclaims that a survey showed marriages made on television have only one-tenth the average divorce rate.

One of the surprises of Mrs. Greene's work is the consistency with which one household item is asked for the brides.

"More than anything else they ask for sewing machines," Pat reports. "I don't know where the career girl has gone."

Airwaves: Free-speaking Frank Lloyd Wright is having a second appearance on the Mike Wallace interview over ABC next Sunday. The New York Philharmonic takes off on its 28th concert season on the air over CBS-Radio Oct. 13.

About Town

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Love, Jr., and daughter, of Columbia, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. U. Love, Sr., 422 West Sixth.

The part is pretty far removed from Baby Doll, and that's the way she planned it. "After I did 'Baby Doll,' I got a flock of scripts which offered me the same kind of role," she remarked. "I turned them all down. There is a temptation for actors who have had success with one kind of role to continue playing it. But if I couldn't do different things, I would quit acting."

The girl is resolute. Her bosses at Warner Brothers have discovered that. She incurred their wrath by flatly refusing to do the Diana Barrymore role in "Too Much, Too Soon."

She stood her ground despite the studio's displeasure. Her stand caused her to lose out on a loan-out to MGM to play the prize role of Grushenka in "The Brothers Karamozov." That's the part that Marilyn Monroe has longed for. When neither she nor Carroll could play the role, it fell to the German beauty, Maria Schell.

Wasn't Carroll put out about losing it?

"Yes," she replied. "It is one of the most beautifully written characters I've ever known. I used to worry about such things, but something taught me not to."

"Once I was very close to getting the role Kim Novak did in 'Picnic.' I was very upset about it."

"But shortly thereafter came 'Giant' and 'Baby Doll,' so I decided not to be concerned about losing roles any longer."

"The Big Country" company is hurrying along with Carroll's scenes, and for a different kind of problem. By the time the picture is finished in December, she will be two months away from giving birth to her second child. Her husband is director Jack Garfein.

Carroll Baker Has New Role In Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Baby Doll is back. Carroll Baker, that is, who's in Hollywood to play the daughter of a Texas land baron (Charles Bickford) who is engaged to an eastern (Gregory Peck) in "The Big Country."

The part is pretty far removed from Baby Doll, and that's the way she planned it. "After I did 'Baby Doll,' I got a flock of scripts which offered me the same kind of role," she remarked. ## Central Missourians Join College Groups

Three Park College freshmen from Central Missouri were accepted by social clubs over the weekend after several days of rushing.

Conrad L. Rothganger, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Rothganger, 1020½ West Third, joined the Anthony club, as did Charles Gottschalk, Lincoln.

Miss Leola I. Shipley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Shipley, Sedalia, is a new member of the Calliopean club.

Park College has no social sororities or fraternities. Each student resident on the campus is a member of one of the four brother-sister clubs.

He got 1000 calls a month from two YELLOW PAGE ads

Yellow Page ads play big part in reaching $1 million sales goal—bring 8984 calls in 9 months.

Fred Foster has quite a success story to tell...

As manager of a chain of tire stores, he tried an experiment to find out if Yellow Page advertising could help sell tires.

His store used a 2-column display ad and trademark heading in the Yellow Pages. The advertisements carried a special telephone number, different from the company's regular telephone listing. A telephone was installed which rang only when customers dialed the special number, and in this way all calls were directly traceable to the Yellow Page ads.

In 271 days, 8984 calls were received. In less than a year, these calls helped the store reach its first million dollars in sales.*

Yellow Page advertising can work for you, too, Mr. Businessman. Talk it over with the Yellow Page man when he calls on you.

Says Younger People More Conservative On Sex Than Elders

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Today's young people are far more conservative than their elders in their attitude toward sex, says a California theologian.

"It isn't that today's college generation is against the mass exploitation of sex," said Dr. Robert Elliott Fitch. "They are indifferent to it."

Fitch, dean of the Pacific School of Religion, Berkeley, Calif., told a luncheon meeting yesterday that the "lurid age," which began in youthful revolt following World War I, is drawing to a close.

The dean had a final word, however. "It is ridiculous to speak of the fall of sex. It just can't happen," he said.

Way to Save State Rights Is Studied

SEA ISLAND, Ga. (AP)—Southern Democratic governors, alarmed by the historic movement of federal troops into Little Rock, Ark., sought means today of preserving states' rights.

The governors found scant comfort in the assurance by President Eisenhower in his televised speech last night that the presence of federal soldiers in the Arkansas capital would turn out to be advantageous and that the bayonets are not there to force integration.

Several possible courses of action were topics of immediate discussion by the heads of states in the last outpost of legal racial segregation.

Of the three Republicans attending the Southern Governors' Conference, two endorsed Eisenhower's stand and his action in sending armed federal troops into Little Rock. The third declined to comment.

The Democrats gave serious consideration to proposals by Gov. Frank Clement of Tennessee that they name a committee to meet with the President and discuss the Arkansas situation.

They also considered a proposal by Gov. Luther Hodges of North Carolina that they adopt a resolution asking the President to leave the maintenance of law and order in Arkansas up to Gov. Orval Faubus of Arkansas as it "is considered to be the primary responsibility of the governor."

Gov. J. Caleb Boggs, a Delaware Republican, is chairman of the Resolutions Committee, which would act on the two proposals. He declined to comment on the President's address and had no comment on Clement's and Hodges' plans.

Another Republican on the Resolutions Committee, Gov. Theodore McKeldin of Maryland, said he would not approve any resolution "which even suggests the possibility of President Eisenhower's improper or unwarranted exercise of federal power."

The third Republican among the Southerners, Gov. Cecil Underwood of West Virginia, said he was unalterably opposed to the resolutions.

Clement made his proposal after, he said, losing sleep over the situation the night before. He suggested that a committee of Southern governors call upon the President and "submit at the conference table those things that would be resolved in the streets of Little Rock, or any other American city, by guns and bayonets. Surely a pencil, a piece of paper and a good heart can do more good than a gun and bayonet."

Pen Is Still Good

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Pietro Pugliano and his 18-year-old wife were arraigned yesterday on charges of passing about $3,000 worth of bad checks.

As magistrate E. N. Johnson was about to sign a legal form, his pen went dry. Pugliano smiled and handed his pen to the magistrate.

"Here judge, try this, it made a lot of money for me," he said.

Packaged Smog Now

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Ever since the land boom days that preceded citrus and film production, Southern Californians have had a reputation for capitalizing on anything.

So now come two San Fernando Valley men to package smog, in cans and other containers, as a souvenir "of the nation's third largest city."

UN Assembly Again Shelves Red China Bid

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. General Assembly has barred the door to Red China for another year over bitter opposition from India and the Soviet bloc.

The Assembly voted last night in favor of a U.S. resolution to shelve the seating issue for the current session.

The vote was 47 in favor, 27 against and 7 abstentions—virtually the same lineup that defeated Peking's bid for a U.N. seat last year.

With the perennial Chinese question out of the way, the Assembly resumes its general debate.

India spearheaded the Peking campaign with a proposal to place the issue on the Assembly agenda for formal debate. While failing, India succeeded in getting plenty of debate on the record—the main thing the U.S. resolution sought to avoid.

Several Scandinavian countries supported the effort to stage a China debate. So did Ireland, although it condemned Peking for aggressive policies.

Advocates of seating Red China actually picked up three votes over last year, when their bid was defeated 47-24 with 8 abstentions. They were Ireland and Morocco, who voted in 1956 to shelve the question, and Ghana, a new U.N. member.

U.S. Chief Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge declared that the United States does not oppose seating Red China because of its political beliefs, but because the Communist regime was not "peace-loving."

Russia's Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko declared that the U.N. could not bar Red China a seat just because "the United States does not happen to like the way of life" there.

FORMER OPERATORS HONORED—Six former telephone operators were entertained at a luncheon at the Hotel by the Sedalia chief operator, Mrs. Genevieve Watson, shown here at center. Later the group visited the new southwestern Bell Building at Fifth and Massachusetts. Mrs. Watson explained the ultra-modern telephone switchboard equipment. One hundred per cent participation of the Sedalia traffic department pensioners was represented these six ladies. Their loyal service to the telephone users in Sedalia totaled 205 years.

British Explodes Second Atomic Device

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP)—Britain today exploded the second atomic device of its current test series with observers from Allied nations looking on for the first time.

Representatives from the North Atlantic and Southeast Asia Treaty organizations joined British, Australian and other commonwealth observers at special vantage points for the test at Maralinga.

Authorities said the firing, the second in Operation Antler, was successful. Like the first blast, the device was fired from a tower.

Approve Sewer Bonds

PLEASANT HILL (AP)—Residents yesterday approved bond issues totaling $309,000 in a special election.

Approved 655 to 62 was a $164,000 issue for an oxidation lagoon and trunk line sewers. A $145,000 issue for lateral sewer lines in new areas carried 614 to 75.

A two-thirds majority was needed.

Curious Stares Greet Clerk Bound by Thief

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo. (AP)—Curious stares greeted a loan company clerk's appeals for help as she hopped onto a busy street yesterday, her hands and feet bound by holdup men.

"I tried to get help," said the clerk, Mrs. Dan Nenninger, 21. "I asked them to help me but they wouldn't do it."

"One man said he would, but he walked off and left me."

The passers-by apparently thought it was a prank. Her feet still bound, Mrs. Nenninger finally hopped into a nearby store. There a clerk removed her bonds and listened to her story.

She said two holdup men entered the Superior Loan Co. and took $199.
